

I favor a la carte channels. I have no interest in the many sports channel now dumped on me. These channels are expensive for the cable company to provide because of the excessive fees paid to professional sports teams. Let the people who watch this stuff pay for it, not me.